OUR SOLUTIONS

Collective bargaining power streamlines your savings opportunities using our many solutions, with options ranging from vaccine purchasing to IT services.

Group purchasing power for clinical and office supply needs

- Vaccine savings that include flexible contracts, rebates and access to all manufacturers and immunization schedules.
- Cost savings on medical/surgical supplies, equipment, cell phones, document destruction and more.
- Value for office supplies and logistics with preferred vendors such as FedEx and OfficeMax; discounts on office equipment with Ricoh and Xerox.
- Meet staffing needs with discounts on placement guarantees and workforce assessment analyses.

Solving health insurance and human resource needs

Recruit and retain the best staff with our help. We have partnered with best-in-market providers to build a set of HR solutions that help you tackle and streamline HR needs, as well as bring measurable savings in areas such as:

- Employee health insurance and benefits
- Payroll
- Worker's compensation
- Retirement plans
- W2 and employer tax services
- Recruiting
- Office document development from job descriptions to employee handbooks

Lowering your liability insurance costs

It's important to protect your practice from risks with proper insurance, but there's no need to pay more to get more coverage. As a member of Pediatric Partners, you can save an average of 30 percent on malpractice insurance – provided by Texas Medical Liability Trust. By combining the purchasing power of our members, you can see big premium savings without sacrificing the independence of your practice.

SOLUTION HIGHLIGHTS

Group purchasing savings

Members participating in our medical/surgical plan have saved as much as 30 percent on expenses.

Maximize your Pediatric Partners membership through our management solutions. Our staff will review your costs and find ways to help you save money and time.

Save as much as 30 percent in medical malpractice insurance costs. Many practices have realized $1,000 to $8,000 in annual costs.

The choice is yours.

You can pick and choose the management solutions that fit your needs – no need to commit to the entire program.

Real estate consulting

Find and lease new space. Renew a lease. Purchase an office condominium or building. Our experienced vendor partner manages the entire real estate process for you: demographics, competition studies, market research and all leasing or purchasing negotiations. Our vendor represents your interests, and the fee is paid by the building owner or seller.

IT services

You can save up to 20 percent on service and support with our health care IT vendor partner. All support engineers are certified HIPAA security professionals. Hardware-as-a-service is provided with easy payment terms and financing options. A complimentary assessment can identify savings in areas such as email encryption, on-site engineering support, quarterly technology reviews, and software deployments and updates.

DISCOVER HOW MUCH YOU CAN SAVE

Our team will provide a needs assessment and cost-savings analysis for any of your needs that our management solutions offer. Our savings efforts never end. We continue to collaborate with you and negotiate with our vendor partners to evaluate your spending and optimize your membership benefits.

We value your input and inquiries, and we look forward to working with your practice to maximize savings so you can spend more time and efforts on your passion: caring for children and families.
